CVMS News

CV students folded paper cranes in honor of Japan. Our heartfelt thoughts go out to them.

Progress Reports

Due to the need to save postage we will not be mailing home progress reports. If you have not been keeping up with your students' grades through Edline, please call the counseling office and we will print you a copy to pick up. If you have a question concerning your students' grades please do not hesitate to email the teacher(s). Thank you.

Show...be sure to sign up during "your" lunch time in the main office. Try Out Dates are April 21 & 28/May 5 & 12 after school. The Talent Show is scheduled for Friday, June 10.

Update on School Improvement Goals

Math has just begun their 2nd round of state testing. Reading progress thus far: 6th grade-81% of students meeting/exceeding, 7th grade-86% of students meeting/exceeding, and 8th grade-74% of students meeting/exceeding.

DC Garage Sale

Come and join us at our yearly fundraiser for students going to DC/NY/ Philadelphia. Saturday April 16th from 8am to 3pm at CVMS in the commons. Lot's of good things to see!

April is Poetry Month

To celebrate poetry month, yesterday, students were asked to write down and read their favorite poem to a staff member. We called it "poem in your pocket" day. Students that participated received Wolf Bucks. It was really fun to see!

Blue on 2 day - The 2nd day of every month CVMS staff and students are wearing Blue to show our support of anti-bullying. Let's all show respect for one another. :-)

PTO

At our PTO meeting yesterday, Dr. Radich, Superintendent of Newberg Public Schools presented on the upcoming school bond on May 17th. If you would like more information please feel free to check the district website: www.newberg.k12.or.us.

What Teachers have to say!

Mr. Rogers: Caitlin Hall is responsible and had her "Do Now" work done and got both answers correct. Nice Job!

Mr. Franco: Jordan Storedahl Offered to help clean up a mess that was created by another student. Wow, thanks!

Mrs. Conley: Alejandro Anaya was very welcoming and kind to a new student. He made him feel very safe and that he had a friend.

Mrs. Wolfe: Makenzie Carothers has been doing an exceptional job in Quest. Recently she has had 2 perfect days!

Mrs. Ceder: Shalanda Nairn-Martinez

Shared her story about her experience at Doernbecher with our whole studentbody! Thank you for your help in raising awareness.

Mrs. Housgard: Jaden Goodbaudy helped set up the mats everyday during the tumbling unit in PE. I really appreciate how dependable he was. Jaden is a good role model for others.

Mrs. Moore: Olivia Pugsley went to a staff member when another student was being bullied. We need more students like Olivia! Thanks.

Mrs. Spang: Giselle Cortez goes out of her way everyday to help her teachers and fellow students!

We are asking for donations to help the people in Japan. Hope to see you!

Wadayama Update

Due to the recent catastrophic events in Japan our kids will not be making the trip to Wadayama in May. Although we were all very disappointed, everyone understands that student safety is our top priority. Our friends from Japan are scheduled to visit us on September 16-26th.
